"I note you say that you enjoy what you characterize as "stomp dances, but you are willing to follow my counsel no matter what the answer. I congratulate you on this attitude. You also say that many people have no evil intentions in dancing these dances. May I give you the following guidelines in reply:

"(1) THE ENCLOSED statement of acceptable dancing states that if one concentrates on good dance posture, many dances can be danced in a manner which will meet LDS standards. Examples of these dances are the waltz, the fox trot, tango, rumba, cha-cha, samba, and the swing, and most of the folk dances, for which the Brigham Young University has a very wholesome and fine reputation.

The seven dances which I have enclosed have all been approved by the General Boards of the Mu-improvement Associations. This should provide a sufficient variety of dances to enable the youth of Zion to have a good time.

"YOU ENCLOSED with your letter a photograph appearing in the Daily Universe of an off-campus "stomp" dance. I do not believe that these photographs in a good posture. Indeed, I doubt whether it is possible to dance most of the prevalent fad dances in a manner that will meet LDS standards, and I know that is why President Wilkinson, who has the complete support of the Board of Trustees, criticized certain dances in his address to the student body. The standards which he outlined for BYU are standards approved by the General Authorities.

"(2) I admit that many of the young people of our Church do not have any evil intentions in dancing certain current fad dances. However, we do not think the test of a proper dance is whether the dancers have evil intentions, but whether the dance is of such dignity and propriety that, even to an on looker, it suggests nothing but style and good grace.

"AFTER ALL, young men and women of our Church should shun even the appearance of evil, and that is why we would very much prefer that you and others avoid the current trend of what, to many

Drive Gain; 4200 Cards

Forty-two hundred Christmas cards, addressed to American soldiers in Viet Nam, were received at BYU Thursday from Ozark College in Missouri, according to Darryl Harris, ASBYU Press Secretary.

THIS BRINGS the total number of cards received from other schools to more than 6000.

An item of special interest is a group of home-made cards from a fifth grade class in Irvington Elementary School in New York.

A VERSE appearing on one of the cards from the class reads, "No though your fate, may be near. We appreciate, it over here (sic)."

Of the 10,000 cards printed in Korean, 7,000 have been distributed to members of the BYU Korean class, said Harris. They have promised to return the cards signed with a message by Dec. 10.

Guild Presents 'Opera Evening'

Productions Guild will present the Opera Workshop in "An Evening of Opera," Friday and Saturday at 8:15 p.m. in the Varsity Theatre.

ANOTHER ACTIVITY sponsored by the Culture Office is the student Art Christmas Exhibit now in progress in the Wilkinson Gallery. Painting, watercolors, drawings, sculpture, and ceramics are included.

Those wishing to purchase any article may leave their name and the name of the piece at the Information Desk of the Wilkinson Center. The exhibit will run through Dec. 17.

Flight Schedules Given For Charter Trips

by Dave Fitzpatrick
Universe Wire Editor

Flying seems to be on just about everyone's mind these days and students at the Brigham Young University are certainly no exception.

EARLIER in the week the Universe began a series devoted to the safety features and the general aspects of airlines flying BYU students east for Christmas. This series was temporarily aborted when it was learned a conflict had arisen which could have affected many students.

However, this conflict was gratefully resolved Wednesday evening when it was learned that the university would not interfere in students' plans for Christmas vacation.

AMERICAN FLYERS Airlines, a veteran unencumbered carrier, has been contacted by one group of BYU students to fly them approximately 2900 miles. The New England-Lan on campus has chartered American Flyers to Buffalo, N. Y. and Boston, Mass.

An Electra turboprop is doing the job and is scheduled to make the long flight in about six and a half hours.

MARVIN K. KEOUGH, Flyers spokesman from Los Angeles, in a telephone interview with the Universe, gave some safety facts concerning his airline.

"American Flyers has had a perfect safety record in 25 years—no one charter."

"We charter professional ball clubs, colleges, service groups and military personnel."

Listed below are the arrival and departure times for the American Flyers flight:

Leave Salt Lake City at 4:30 p.m. Arrive Logan International in Boston at 12:30 p.m. Dec. 18.

Leave Logan 11 p.m. January 3. Arrive in Salt Lake 2 p.m. Jan. 4.

THE WASHINGTON, D. C. club is chartering a record three flights to the nation's capital. Two of the planes are United Airlines charters while the third is an Eddie Airlines flight.

"Officials have often pointed out that flying is comparatively much safer than road travel. Airlines have to, by FAA regulations, over haul their engines, after 130 hours air travel."

BOTH UNITED and Eddie, a travel service official reported, over haul their engines with less hours than the prescribed maximum. The Chicago Club on campus is also chartering an Eddie flight back to the Windy City.

Here are the approximate arrival and departure times of all remaining charter flights:

Washington Club No. 1

Leave Salt Lake City Dec. 17, 10 p.m. Arrive National Airport, Washington at 5:20 p.m.
Leave Washington Jan. 3, 11:30 a.m. Arrive Salt Lake Jan. 3 at 4 p.m.

Washington No. 2

Leave SLC Dec. 18 at 8:30 a.m. Arrive Washington 5:30 p.m. Dec. 18. Leave Washington 10 a.m. Dec. 19. Arrive SLC 6 p.m. Jan. 1.

Washington No. 3

Leave SLC 1 p.m. Dec. 18. Arrive Washington 11 p.m. Dec. 18. Leave Washington Jan. 3 at 3 p.m. Arrive SLC 2 at 5:30 p.m.

Tickets Ready In West Annex Before Games

Ticket distribution for the Houston and Illinois basketball games this week-end will begin the night of each game at 5:30 p.m. in the west annex of the Smith Fieldhouse, according to Boyd Zollinger, executive assistant, and Dennis Moore, chairman of the Student Athletic Board.

DISTRIBUTION will be on a first come, first serve basis. Since places in line may not be saved, it will be necessary for dates to wait in line together, they said.

A student may obtain only one ticket for each game with his student activity card.

ONCE A STUDENT enters the west annex, he cannot leave without forfeiting his activity card. Students who leave the fieldhouse after obtaining their tickets, cannot re-enter.

"We realize that there are many problems involved with this kind of ticket distribution," said Zollinger. "Much thought has been put into the problem, it is hoped that in the near future, a policy will be made to alleviate these problems," he said.

SUCH A POLICY would be implemented on a trial basis, said Zollinger.

Fall Concert Given By BYU Concert Band

by Gary Fisher

The BYU Music Department produces some fine performing groups, but none quite equal to the Concert Band. Their supremacy was proven easily Thursday night in an extremely well performed fall concert. Ralph Laycock is nationally recognized as a brilliant band conductor.

NEVER ONCE throughout the concert did anyone doubt his exceptional ability as conductor and instructor. His band is well disciplined, musically sensitive and certainly can boast as fine a brass section as one will encounter on a college level. Little criticism could be directed toward the performers and their ability to play their music. They were well rehearsed, evidenced especially in precise playing.

The program itself had no lack of punch. In fact it stormed its way through the evening with highly a lull. Carson Sharp, trombone soloist in the Baritone, Andante Allegro display an exceptional quality. The tone quality he achieved was impressive indeed.

THE HIGHLIGHT of the evening was Elgar's Enigma Variations depicting the graphic character of each variation. Williams' Easy for Band might have been recognized by those who uttered notes as background music to the favorite westerns.

The "abbreviated" Empire Waltz is most effective when played by a symphony orchestra, in hand form becomes too heavy and thick. Perhaps the second of the concert left a little water in regard to programming, none-the-less this band even made inappropriate music sound good. There is no doubt as to the Concert Band's excellence.

Beginning Square Dance Group To Receive Skills Instruction

by Mari Vann Bailey
Universe Staff Writer

Howdy partner! How about a square dance? You would? Then join the new group of beginning dancers.

The Desert Towers Cafeteria is open every Wednesday night from 7:30 to 9:30 while Wayne Turley instructs all those who gather for growth of their square dancing skills and for their own enjoyment.

Although Men's Housing sponsors this open house square dancing, it's a stag affair with the girls invited to join the fellows in learning new square-dance patterns.

Mr. Turley emphasized that the dancers would progress from the beginner's level in their abilities during the year, but not so rapidly that most of the youth wouldn't enjoy the time spent there.

Don't worry about finding a western clothes to wear on the occasions. School clothes are appropriate, but dressing well does add to the atmosphere of spirit.

I hope to work with at least a hundred kids, and I would eventually like to involve one thousand. Mr. Turley said as part of goals for the year.

If you don't have every week enjoy yourself at these open house square dances, bring all of your roommates and count the event as your family night—just like a group of boys did last week.

OPEN-A CONVENIENT ZALE ACCOUNT

With Wandering Awe

by Jaron Summers
Feature Editor

It will soon be time for another IBM dance. That's when students record their age and sex on a punched card.

This is fed into an IBM machine, scrambled around for awhile and sets of couples, paired according to the whims of an electronic circuit, result.

For the sorting process the IBM receives fifty cents per student or enough money to buy it all until the next dance.

Last year some interesting results emerged from the electronic wonders. One couple turned out to be a brother and sister.

Another thing happened that made nation-wide news: Two students that were matched became engaged shortly after the dance.

The story appeared in over a hundred West Coast newspapers; but it never made the Daily Universe.

After I read about the engagement in the San Francisco Times I went bounding up to show it to the feature editor of the Daily Universe.

He looked at it in silence for about a minute, then allowed, "So what?"

"Whadya mean, 'so what'?" I fumed. "Why this is nationwide news, man! Just think a machine has picked a marriage."

He yawned.

"Say, what's wrong with you—can't you recognize a story when you see it?"

He tugged at his ear and yawned louder.

"All right fellow, I'm going to see the publication advisor about your article," I threatened.

"Hold it," he condescended, "and I'll show you something."

We walked to the hallway and pushing the elevator button, the editor continued, "Just wait and keep your eyes open."

Five minutes later the elevator door slid open and my self-appointed guide asked the girl standing next to the floor buttons, "One please."

Pushing it she cooed: "My name's Judy—what's yours?"

Before he could reply the elevator stopped at the fourth floor. A fine looking young man stepped on and she smiled to him: "My name is Judy—what's yours?"

He told her. A teacher happened on at the third floor and glared at Judy who had managed to twist her new found friend's arm around her neck.

They kissed twice as the door opened at the second floor and by the time we made it to the first, the boy had taken everyone's names in the elevator so he would know to whom to send wedding invitations.

As they left the elevator, arm in arm, I overheard Judy telling her four-minute fiancé about a diamond ring sale.

The editor spoke: "Now can you understand why a story about a couple becoming engaged because of an IBM machine isn't a great scoop?"

"No."

He sighed, "Follow me." As we walked toward the howling alley I noticed that a retired missionary had set up a marriage booth and was doing a landslide business.

Further along in the ping pong area, couples were playing table tennis to decide on who got whom for a wife or husband.

One girl was sobbing because her partner had chosen the ping pong ball instead of her—but that was the exception.

Outside, in the driveway, a long line of cars decorated with wedding flowers was waiting for students.

The editor, losing patience, demanded, "Can you understand now why a single couple getting married as a result of an IBM dance, isn't newsworthy on this campus?"

"Yes," I gave in.

"Thank you. Now please excuse me; I have a date to be married in ten minutes."

Graduate students who are planning to take the Graduate School Foreign Language Test on January 27, 1966 must register with the Testing Service, B-238, ASB, by Friday, December 17. A $6.00 fee is required to register for the test. Registrations can not be accepted after this date, according to Wesley P. Lloyd's office, Graduate students' dean.

Civil Service To Stage Exam

The U. S. Civil Service Commission will hold an open competitive examination for summer employment in 1966.

THE EXAMINATION, which covers office and science assistant positions in grades GS-1 through GS-4, will be given on a Saturday in late January or early February 1966.

Applications can be obtained from any local post office or Civil Service office, or from the U.S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D.C. Applications to take the test must be postmarked no later than January 3, 1966.

With only a few exceptions, everyone applying for summer Federal Government work must take the Office and Science Assistant Position examination to be eligible. The test will not cover "blue-collar" jobs, post office jobs, positions above the grade four level and certain Civil Service and Forest Service jobs.

BYU Graduate To Teach At Naval School

Professor Gerald H. Lindsey, who received his Bachelor and Masters degree from Brigham Young University, has recently completed work on his Ph.D. in Aeronautical Engineering at the California Institute of Technology and will begin his teaching career with an Associate Professorship in the field at the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, California.

LINDSEY was awarded a research contract by the U.S. Air Force several years ago to do work concerning the fracture of polymeric materials as motivated by solid propellant problems. He has also published several papers on the subject.

Popsters Ice Illini, Houston

Traditionally opens its basketball season with some tough games, and this year will be no exception.

NOIS, OUT of the always-Big Ten, and Houston, one of the top independents in the West, will invade Provo this Saturday, and it promises to be an interesting series. At time for both games will be at the George Albert Fieldhouse.

AD COACH Stan Watts announced Thursday that his starting lineup will consist of an all-around five, with Craig Raymond at point guard, Dick Nemelka and Jeff Congdon at guards, and Steve and Neil Roberts at forwards. Nemelka, Kramer, and Roberts were starters last year, while Congdon and Raymond saw limited action.

Other returning lettermen are Gary Hill, Bill Ruffner, Ken Hill, and Jim Jimas.

FROM the freshman squad are Andy Schouten, Jim Eskins, and Masegna, and transfers Paul and Orville Fisher round out the squad.

Illinois finished third in the Big Ten last season, behind Michigan and Minnesota. Even with a third-place finish, Illinois impressed a number of teams, including UCLA, Minnesota, Notre Dame, and Kentucky. All victims of the Illini. Averaging over 32 points a game, Illinois piled up an 18-6 record.

QUADRU cost Illinois Coach Combes four of his starters, the question this year is whether his younger team can match Michigan and Minnesota in the Big Ten crown again.

Only returning starter for Illinois, though, is a good one in Freeman, who averaged 18.3 points per contest last year.

USTON also had a fine season last year. Their 19-11 record was a playoff win over Notre Dame 99-98 landed them a berth in the NCAA Mid-West regionals in Manhattan, Kan.

Hammond, born in Beirut, Lebanon, is rated the finest guard in Provo since Al-American Phillips in 1961. Last year he averaged over 17 points a game, and was boosted for All-American this year.

He is one of the nation's top sophomore prospects will see action this weekend. Elvin Hayes of Houston and Rich Jones of Illinois are their coaches raving about talents.

Yes is a 6-8, 230 pounder from Provo, La., and his fresh recruits for himself. He scored 20 points in his first game.

Closed Circuit Television For 1965 Casaba Season

Closed circuit telecasting of Brigham Young University basketball games has been extended this year to include all home games except the Dec. 22 contest against St. Joseph's.

The televising, sponsored jointly by BYU Broadcast Services and the Athletic Council, will begin this weekend with the Illinois and Houston games.

Admission to the closed circuit showings, to be held in the Wilkinson Center ballroom with the frosh games at 6:00, will be by activity card. Non-students will be charged one dollar.

"The Athletic Department has adopted and expanded the closed circuit program to do something about the unfortunate seating problem evolving from the growing student body," explained Paul Hansen, Student Relations representative.

"If needed, another location on campus might be utilized," he added.

The frosh games will be televised live by KBYU-TV on channel 11.

Intramural Swim Meet Scheduled

Entries for this year's Intramural Swim Meet will be taken Monday at pool side of the Richards Physical Education Bldg. just prior to the actual events, according to the Intramural office.

THE MEET itself will take place Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the competitive pool of the RPE Bldg.

Nine events will comprise the annual swim meet, being held for the first time this year in BYU's own pool. Previously, the meets were held in Springville.

FIRST EVENTS ON the docket will be the 200-yard team medley. Four men will compete in this event, the first swimming the backstroke for 50 yards, the second—breast stroke, the third—butterfly and the fourth—free-style.

The 50-yard free style (record time: :24.1) will be next, followed by the 100-yard individual medley.

EACH PARTICIPANT will first swim 25 yards using the butterfly stroke, then 25 using the backstroke, 25 with the breast stroke and 25 free-style.

Fourth event will be the 50-yard butterfly (record: :27.0); the fifth, 100-yard free-style; the sixth, 50-yard backstroke (record: :30.4); and the seventh 200-yard free style (record: 2:16.7).

AN INDIVIDUAL 50-yard breast-stroke race and a 200-yard team relay (four men swimming free-style) complete the schedule of events.

Each entrant is limited to two individual events and one relay or two relay events and one individual. Organizations may enter one team in each relay.

Trophies will be awarded to teams and individuals.

FOCUS ON SPORTS

Now Comes Tough Part

by Stan Hodge

Alexander the Great, Hannibal, Napoleon and Tom Hudspeth all have shared a similar problem. Each been confronted with the task of recruiting new men.

And so, now the work really begins for head Tommy Hudspeth. "We're going after more play- Hudspeth said after defeating New Mexico to the conference crown. It's all part of Hudspeth's to build a football dynasty at BYU to rule the ern Athletic Conference.

Weekly Public Examinations

To win you've got to have players and Coach Hudspeth to stay," he said as he hung his hat in BYU football office.

The results, successes or failures, in the recruiting can be immediately obvious in the fall.

The head coach and his assistants tutor their urges much the same as any other university fessor; but when the weekend arrives he puts m through a public examination. What other iversity teachers would so risk their reputations a public examination weekly of their pupils?

The results have been obvious. Coming to BYU little to build on (a check of the record books I show that easily), he's built a conference ampton in two years . . . and many say he has a tre Dame of the West in the back of his mind.

Hudspeth played his first year out with what be-known as the "thin blue line." It was seldom more two deep in any position and often only one . . . tionally even without anyone as the head coach led linemen to come up with eleven starters.

At First Only Hope—And Then

During the winter that followed he knew what was and went after it. When he came back he had adful of Marine transfers and numerous top junior e personnel.

The first time he displayed them to the public a against the alumni. The fans started to whis- . By spring the hopes were being sold alon . . . hopefully at first and then with increasing thorty. By mid season the earth had begun to mor and by the time the season was drawing a close they must have heard the shouting on th coasts.

Coach Hudspeth wasn't thinking about this year a however. Along with the crew the crowd came t "this fall he's been sitting on a couple of red-shirt- who for one reason or another weren't eligible this n.

And there's the freshmen. When Steve's back- (Virgil Carter, John Ogden, Steve Ogden and Oborn) were freshmen the crowd talked that they the finest in BYU history. This year's club made tttij of the records they set in 1963.

So when Coach Hudspeth says he's after more yers it's got to mean even bigger things on the U gridiron.

'King' Basketball Takes Over

by Mike Twitty
Universe Sports Writer

College basketball hits full stride across the country this weekend with a full slate of games. Fans will have the chance to observe first hand how the returning letter-men look and see how the sophomores have blended into varsity competition.

ON THE HOME front Utah State, Weber State, and Utah have opened their schedules.

Utah State looked impressive in their opener Wednesday night by thumping Montana State 102-68. Alan Parrish (6-8) led the Aggies with 20 points. Two junior college transfers also scored in double figures. Dennis O'Brien (6-2), from San Mateo, and Tom Stewart (6-5), from Santa Rosa, tallied 19 and 15 points, respectively.

THE FARMERS will travel to the Northwest this weekend for games with Seattle Friday and Idaho Saturday. Monday and Tuesday they return home to host Loyola University of California and Centenary College.

Two seniors, 11 juniors, and three sophomores comprise this year's crew under Labell Anderson.

UTAH'S REDSKINS started their campaign last night, also against the Bobcats from Montana State. Saturday Loyola will visit Umar Nielson Fieldhouse and Monday Centenary will try to upend the Utes.

Jerry Chambers will be on the post for Jack Gardner's Utes. Chamber's was the Utes' top scorer last year with a 19.5 average and also the leading rebounder with a 10.6 average.

GEORGE FISHER, who averaged 17.8 last season, will be at one forward spot. Leonard Black, a senior, or Lyndon Mackay, recently returned from a mission, will be at the other forward.

Guards will be Rich Tate, a senior, and Mervin Jackson, a 6-2 sophomore who is a fine shot and can get up in the air as though he were taller.

BOTH THE AGGIES and the Redskins will likely jump off to fast starts again with somewhat less-than-impressive schedules.

Weber State, led by all-conference Gene Visscher, downed Chico State 83-68 Wednesday night. In the preliminary game, the Wildcats trounced Snow College 78-51. BYU's Kittens will entertain both teams this weekend.

IN ACTION around the nation already completed, second-ranked Michigan beat 17th ranked Tennessee 71-53. Other top-ranked teams to win handily were Minnesota (31, St. Joseph's (4), Duke (5), and Bradley (9). There has been an upset in first round games as Creighton beat 12th rated Kansas State, 83-75.

Fans are still stunned over UCLA's drubbing by it's own freshman team, 75-90. Lew Alcindor, the 7'1" import from Power Memorial in New York City, scored 31 points, grabbed 21 rebounds, and drew no fouls. Junior Mike Lynn led the Bruin victory with 12 points.

ALTHOUGH HE is undoubtedly looking forward to next year, UCLA

Coach John Wooden would like to see his team earn an unprecedented third straight national championship.

Basketball will provide interest and emotion throughout the winter as fans follow the country's major teams in addition to BYU's update neighbors.

Cougar Gymnasts Ready To Compete In San Francisco Invitational Meet

BY U's optimistic gymnastics team leaves Friday for San Francisco to compete in the San Francisco State College Invitational Meet on Saturday.

Held at San Francisco State University, the San Francisco Invitational is traditionally one of the toughest pre-season meets in the West.

THE OPEN MEET will be attended by California schools who rank among the nation's best, and also by unattached individual performers including several national champions. This is the first

BYU has entered this meet. Coach Bruce Morganegg, making his first year at the helm, the Cougars, is looking forward to this meet. Entered in it were USC, UCLA, and the University of California at Berkeley, among others. These are the strong teams on the coast, and Morganegg is anxious to see how his compares.

ACCORDING TO COACH Morganegg the meet will be "a meter to indicate our chances of qualifying several of our men for national competition."

The Cougars have several faces, including two from junior college transfers. They are only three returning lettermen to the entire squad.

MORGANEGG will take his best to California: Rick Nicholas and John Morrissey, who matriculated last year at Pasadena College, are rated BYU's top performers. Both will compete in all-around event. Nicholas is on the parallel bars, while Morrissey specializes in the high bar.

Dave Watters, a freshman from Oregon High, will compete in exercise and parallel bars. French is entered in the free exercise event only. Rounding out the traveling squad for the Cougar Bob Mullins, a sophomore who best on the still rings.

Although this meet will not be a national tournament, it will Morganegg a chance to see how his gymnasts will fare, since many of the performers from USC, UCLA are nationally ranked. Has one man who is a former Olympic performer.
